Linguistische Treffen in Wrocław, vol. 20, 2021 (II)
edited by
Iwona Bartoszewicz, Joanna Szczęk, Artur Tworek

(Will be published by November 2021)

Contents

I. Current linguistic research questions and perspectives

2. Magdalena Duś: Introductory Remarks to the Analysis of Communication on Tennis Fan Forums

3. Hans Giessen: Are We Victims of Our Languages?

4. Oksana Havryliv: Language and Corona

7. Tetiana Liashenko: On the Problem of Detection of Culture in Literary Texts from the Translation-Relevant Perspective (on the Material of the German Translation of the story “The Destiny was in the hands of God” by Mikhailina Roshkevich)

9. Małgorzata Zarzycka: Dutch Culture-specific Items in the Polish Translation of „De reünie” by Simone Van Der Vlugt. Analysis of the Selected Translation Techniques

II. Contributions by young scientists
1. Sara Bonin: Who Belongs to the German Minority? Definitions of Belonging between a Minority Perspective and National Legislation

2. Miaoxin Chen: Communicative Patterns in Chinese University GFL Classroom Conversations Using the Example of Conversation Opening

3. Monika Horodecka: Functions of Text Design in CD Covers as Multimodal Texts

4. Krysztof Kamiński: Teaching Foreign Languages to the Deaf in Poland

5. Kasjana Kowalska: Multimodality in Comic Translation. On the Example of Polish Translations of Selected Scenes from the “Thorgal” Series by Grzegorz Rosiński and Jean Van Hamme

6. Maria Lewandowska: The Contribution of Culture in the Process of Language Evolution and Language Formation

7. Ramona Plitt: AI and Art – The Potential of a Cognitive-Oriented Discourse Analysis

8. William Richter: German Language Islands in Slovakia with a Focus on the Hauerland – The Past, Present and Future

9. Louise van Wijgerden: The Experience of Boredom and the Activation Process of Children in GFL Lessons in Early School

10. Anna Woronina: Presentation of the Alpine Landscape in Outdoor Reports

III. Phoneline – Studies on Linguistic Phonetics

1. Alicja Derych: English Native Speakers’ Pronunciation of the Selected Polish Consonant Clusters

2. Barbara Grobelna: Exploring the Preferences of Polish EFL Teachers towards the Accents of English

3. Beata Grzeszczakowska-Pawlikowska: Some Thoughts on the Awareness of Pronunciation in the Context of Foreign Language Teaching

4. Anne-Marie Otto: Pronunciation Exercises for Germans Learning Polish – a Teaching Material Analysis

5. Anna Radzik: Roland Kehreins Views on “Prosodie und Emotionen” and their Application in GFL Lessons

6. Susanne Rummel / Katharina Nimz / Stefanie Jannedy: Vowels in Kiezdeutsch: A Phonetic Analysis of Vowel Quantity and Quality

7. Katarzyna Zalisz: Teaching and Learning Foreign Language Sounds: Students’ Perspective
IV. Reviews

1. MONIKA CZAJA: Linguistic Research Today – Relevant and Current Topics in Research
2. JÓZEF JAROSZ: Introduction to the Swedish phonetics and phonology at last in Polish
3. MARCELINA KAŁASZNIK: The Designing and Integrating Nature of Discourse Linguistics
4. AGNIESZKA MAC: Linguistic Studies in Poland and Germany after the fall of the Berlin Wall
5. JOANNA SZCZEK: Research Opportunities in the Field of Legal Phraseology

V. Reports

1. ANNA GONDEK: Abschlussbericht über die Realisierung des Erasmus+-Projekts Internationalisierung und Weiterentwicklung des Doktorandenstudiums, Oktober 2018-Juni 2021